

YOUR NEXT ADVENTURE IS ON THE HORIZON

She provides 3 cabins, 5 beds, 2 bathrooms, a fully equipped kitchen and a saloon. Not just a charter yacht but a luxurious performance cruiser stretching 14 meters.

DO YOU NEED TO KNOW HOW TO SAIL?

No, but it is recommended to be physically and mentally fit. You will embark on an active sailing journey and become part of the crew under the supervision of a highly experienced skipper. You'll steer the ship, trim the sails, hoist the gennaker, take your shifts, and celebrate achievements with the crew along the way.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

You'll embark from Amsterdam or Enkhuizen on a 5-day journey with your friends. The boarding location is decided in advance with the skipper. Depending on the conditions and your preferences together with the captain you will plan the route.

WHAT WILL YOU EAT?

High quality meals are an essential part of a week on the water. There will be healthy food options for all daily meals, either on shore or on board where we'll cook as a crew. Food preferences and groceries will be taken care off.

WHAT TO BRING?

A toothbrush, layered clothing and the right boots will go a long way. Professional sailing suits and life jackets will be provided. The boat is fully equipped, so you don't need to bring a sleeping bag, willows, or towels. A detailed packing list will be provided well in advance.

MEET THE CAPTAIN

You'll notice that our captains are not just captains. Not only are they fully qualified, with thousands of nautical miles and ocean crossings under their belt, they also bring extensive experience in corporate careers, education, and professional sports. For us, this is paramount because it makes the trip about so much more than just being on the water.

A week before departure, you will meet your captain in a video call and discuss practical matters like food preferences, trip planning, weather conditions, and logistics.
